Saturday

Darling Hubby, dear: —

This is in answer to your wonderful letter of Wednesday. I am writing early again this morning. Dear heart! next Saturday! Think of it — just one small week — and — I shall be with you. Dear lad, I sure do get happy when I think of it. You write to me, lad, making Tuesday your last letter, which I will get Thursday noon. I will write to you until Wednesday, & on Thursday, I will send you a big long letter.

I accomplished quite a little yesterday. Served until 12 P.M. Went to the dentist in the morning, & you see that took up a great deal of my time. Everything will turn out nicely, & smoothly I think. Will pack Tuesday night, & call up the P'sm. station on Tuesday to call for the baggage on Wednesday. So you see lad, I shall have plenty of time in which to get it off on the same train. Gold! I sure do hate to think of saying the "Good Bye's".

Called up Rose yesterday to find out how Mamie, & it seems the night before she did not sleep again for the entire night. I do wish that sleep would come to her, it's otherwise she is alright — that is as far as her heart is concerned. The specialist, Dr. Ashwell, saw what my mother tells me, so I have not seen them since Wednesday night & ordered a change of medicine starting out yesterday. I hope that will help her same. It is 8.30 now, and as soon as 9 o'clock rolls around, I'll call Rose again to see is now sleepy any that night (Friday). For that reason, they are not discharging Rose. They want her to have her natural sleep before sending her home. She is up every afternoon for the entire time and if only she could sleep, everything would be alright.

As to the 3rd. room, look, you do as you think best. You can get dining room furniture, and get an easy or comfortable arm chair, too. You see, dear, what you can do, and I am sure I will like it. {That lamp, look, that Rose gave us for a library, don't you remember? Maybe get another lamp}

An extremely happy look, that you got an invite that big season. It sure will be some left, and as I often said, it is only a matter of time — its bound to come. We want it very much and you have those few dollars coming in steadily from Minister + Young people, with which to cover the rent, so you see, look, even if things go worse than we forgive, we can still manage alright. We will pull through alright, I do not worry. Look, what did you mean about that case which involved the client + in which you made $100 $\frac{00}{100}$? I don't remember anything at all about it.

Shall close now with all my love, hugs + kisses which until Saturday, will have he sent to you by mail — but after Saturday — you — me! I honestly can't wait until the 12. So mail is delivered — I get so impatient to hear from you. Will not send this until I hear from Rose + so can let you know how mam is feeling.

Everlovingly
Your impatient wifie.

Called up Rose and she says mama slept + very little last night.

Enclosed clipping from the Tribune. Flash! I was sore because they haven't a cam ~~advantage~~ married to commemorate of the marine corps and here you are such a wonderful successful lawyer!
